

School to inspire women in STEM to take on leadership roles APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN!

The Australian Institute of Nuclear Science and Engineering (AINSE) has received grant funding from the Australian government to provide a three-day intensive residential workshop.

The AINSE Women in STEM and Entrepreneurship (WISE) School will include:

tours of ANSTO labs & facilities ▪ lectures and experimental sessions ▪ high profile guest speakers ▪ an opportunity to network with other students and ANSTO researchers ▪ mentoring program ▪ extensive social program ▪ flights & accommodation to Sydney ▪ all meals included

When Monday 4 Dec – Wednesday 6 Dec 2017

Where Australian Nuclear Science and Technology Organisation (ANSTO), Lucas Heights, NSW

Eligibility: first year students that have completed their 1st year of studies as at 31 Dec 2017 · a person who identifies as a woman in STEM · 18yrs old as at 31 Nov 2017

HOW TO APPLY

Interested students should contact the AINSE Councillor at your university to find out more about the application process.

To find the contact details for the councillor and for more information, please visit

www.ainse.edu.au

Applications Close Wed 1
Nov 2017

